

Exercise for android training course

Submission date is due on 20th of May, 2015.

(Send mail at nguyen.anh.minh@inte.co.jp)

In this exercise you will design and implement of some UIs of some mobile apps. Exercise will help you to practice design of mobile apps using standardization methods for mobile software development started from wireframe, mockup. After accomplish of design of mobile apps, you will implement it according to your prior design (For only UI). Please test your apps on simulator or real devices before submission. You result for marking are design of wireframe and implementation. In this exercise you will select one of best two apps which you had analyzed in prior exercise. Students will follow the following steps to complete exercise. There are some online web provider for you to design mockup as fluidui, simulify, etc.

Design and Implementation of prototype of UI screen.

1. Design of mockup.
2. Select a correlated layout.
3. Design of screens.
4. Implementation.
5. Test your app on simulator.